1 a obsolete : disturbance b : excitement 2 a : the affective aspect of consciousness : feeling b : a state of feeling c : a conscious mental reaction (as anger or fear) subjectively experienced as strong feeling usually directed toward a specific object and typically accompanied by physiological and behavioral changes in the body synonyms See Synonym Discussion at feeling.

As we can see, emotions are tied to feelings and our feelings may change from day to day or year to year thus never always remaining the same. In ancient Egypt, the Pa Neter deity that was tied to the emotions is known as Set. It has been said that Set is tied to chaos, hostility and evil in the form of fetters.

Set

In an online article By: Sharoni 1204 she states, The word emotions or E-motion contains energy in motion. The place of this energy in motion is the place where energy vibration is released. Energy vibration is life, life is what creates the circumstances that we live in.

Teachings of The Scribes Translated By: Dr. Muata Ashby & Karen Dja Ashby

Pert Em Heru teaching on Set.

Set represents the unbridled lower self of all human beings. His impulsiveness and reckless passionate pursuits are the ever present enemy of the aspirant or anyone else striving for control over the urges of the mind, body, and senses. The lower self is represented by desires of the mind which lure the soul into various situations of pleasure and pain in the world of time and space the relative existence. These desires lead to a degraded mental captivity which manifest in the forms of selfishness, greed, hatred, anger, list and other human failings. These faults or mental complexes are termed as fetters. Fetters of the mind prevent the soul from discovering peace, harmony, and oneness with he universe.

3 - The Principle of Vibration Nothing rests, everything moves, everything vibrates. -

Webster's dictionary defines vibration as such.

Main Entry: vi·bra·tion

Pronunciation: \vī-'brā-shən\

Function: noun

Date: 1635

1 a : a periodic motion of the particles of an elastic body or medium in alternately opposite directions from the position of equilibrium when that equilibrium has been disturbed (as when a stretched cord produces musical tones or molecules in the air transmit sounds to the ear) b : the action of vibrating : the state of being vibrated or in vibratory motion: as (1) : oscillation (2) : a quivering or trembling motion : quiver 2 : an instance of vibration 3 : vacillation in opinion or action : wavering 4 a : a characteristic emanation, aura, or spirit that infuses or vitalizes someone or something and that can be instinctively sensed or experienced —often used in plural b : a distinctive usually emotional atmosphere capable of being sensed —usually used in plural — vi·bra·tion·al \-shnəl, -shə-nəl\ adjective — vi·bra·tion·less \-shən-ləs\ adjective

As we can see, everything on the physical plane of existence is effected by vibration which is a form of energies in motion, never standing still even though it appears many things solid have no vibration or movement such are the illusions of this physical life.

3. Q. What is the vibrationless state of existence called? A. According to the knowledge taught by Scribes and Master Teachers this state of vibrationless existence is called The Nun or the place of undifferentiated matter from this mass or darkness arose Atum-Ra in the form of Khepri.

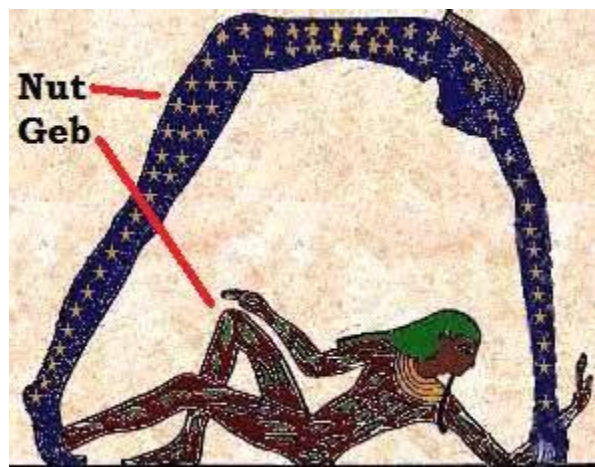

Pert Em Heru Translated By: Dr. Muata Ashby & Karen Dja Clark Ashby

Atum

When Atum emerge from the Nun, the primordial waters, before sky and earth were born and before creation of worm or reptile, he found no place to stand. Tum represents the first emerging thought which contemplated its own existence in the vast ocean of undifferentiated consciousness which is devoid of names and forms, devoid of tangibleness, solidification, coagulation and grossness. All that existed was subtle matter, primeval ocean. The pyramid text continues explaining how Atum continued the process of creation by emitting the other principals of creation in the form of Neteru Gods and Goddesses. In this manner, the various forms of matter emanated from Tum and have form to the primeval ocean, and continued to give and sustain its form at every moment. Geb is the Son of Shu and Tefnut and represents the solid earth. Nut is the daughter of Shu and Tefnut and represents the sky, heavens, and the mother of Asar, Aset, Set, and Nebethet.

6. Q. In actual fact # 17 emotional Energy, it states in verse 141 that Paa Khaibetu are what many call angelic beings? A. Lets go to the pyramid text “Pert em Heru” and see what it says the Khaibit is defined as.

Pert Em Heru translated By: Dr. Muata Ashby & Karen Clark Ashby p. 135

The Khaibit is therefore, an outline of the soul that is illumined by the light of the spirit, which is reflects in the mind as a subtle image of self the ego. The shades are subtle reflections of the soul, which are not self illuminating and which there exist only due to the presence of light and object. In this case the object is the soul the Ba. The Khaibit and other elements of the personality consume spiritual energy from the spirit and produce a particular image thereafter referred to as the individual personality of a human being. The Khaibit or shadow is associated with the Ba soul from which it receives nourishment. It has power of locomotion and omnipresence.

7. Q. What is the meaning of the sun traversing between the two earthen mounds at Toltec Mounds located in Scott, Arkansas. A. When Ra the sun traverses between the two mounds in preparation to align and pass into the underworld, the sun traversing between them is a symbol of yesterday and today, just the same as in ancient Egypt where the symbol was the akheru lions. The deeper mystical teaching is for the spiritual aspirant not to get caught up in the pettiness of life, tensions, anxiety over what's happened in the past and tension and anxiety of what will happen in the future.

Akhet Lions Yesterday & Today
